

SACRAMENTO - SAN JOAQUIN

DELTA CONSERVANCY

A California State Agency

Delta Carbon Workshop on the Economics of Carbon Credits

Tuesday, June 21, 2016, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Delta Conservancy, 1450 Halyard Dr. Ste. 6, West Sacramento

If you would like to participate remotely, please follow this link to register:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/75559913917122050>

AGENDA

Workshop Objective: The objective of the workshop will be to explore the various cost components that go into verifying, registering, and selling carbon credits; processes for finding buyers and negotiating agreements; credit sale contracts structures; and revenue compared to project implementation costs.

- 1) Welcome and Introductions, Campbell Ingram
- 2) Update on the Carbon Protocol adoption process with American Carbon Registry, Steve Deverel and Arjun Patney
- 3) Update on process and timeline for consideration by the Air Resources Board for adoption of the Carbon Protocol into the Compliance Program, Mark Mondik
- 4) Discussion of various cost components that go into verifying, registering, and selling carbon credits, Mark Mondik and Steve Deverel
- 5) Overview of process for finding buyers and negotiating agreements, Mark Mondik and Steve Deverel
- 6) Overview of the type of credit sale contracts or structures that are available, Mark Mondik and Steve Deverel
- 7) Discussion of revenue from credits compared to compare to project implementation costs, Mark Mondik and Steve Deverel
- 8) Next Steps and Future Agenda Items
- 9) Adjourn